BEST KEPT SECRETS OF CHENNAI

By JS

What really makes a city so unique is not just the major landmarks, but also the much smaller and often hidden hubs, which are popular among the local residents, yet not often spoken of. These places probably don't have much of a retail space, no big flashy signs, no registration, service tax or even a bill book, but their presence adds so much character to our city. This month, we attempt to explore every nook and corner of Chennai and share with you the best of the lot!

Get Prepared

Survival Instincts is claimed to be India's first survival skills training organisation. This team organises practical workshops periodically to increase awareness and train people with survival skills across all walks of life. Learn simple things like basic first aid to shelter building, fire craft, self-defense, signaling, navigation and much more.
