

The Times of India

Title : NEWS DIGEST

Author :

Location :

Article Date : 05/31/2014

LGBT parade in Chennai on June 29 The sixth annual 'Rainbow Pride' march by the LGBT community in Chennai will be held on June 29.

More than 1,000 people from the community and supporters are expected to take part in the series of the programmes that have been planned in the run-up to the march. Tamil Nadu Rainbow Coalition will hold cultural programmes, seminars, film screening and parents' meet as part of the programme.

Tsunami response drill at Marina: A war-level safety drill at Marina Beach on Friday simulated the aftermath of tsunami and stressed the need for a quick, coordinated response to save lives in the event of a natural disaster. Survival Instincts, a non profit organization, conducted the event with assistance of Coastal Security Group, Coastguard and the Navy.

CBSE gives online option for re-evaluation: CBSE students of Class 12 who got their board exam results recently, can apply for reevaluation of marks till June 5.

They can apply for online verification after paying a fee of Rs300. From this year, students who apply to get a photocopy of the evaluated answer books can apply for revaluation. Those who have applied for verification of marks can get a photocopy of the evaluated mark sheets

CM orders release of water from Periyar: Chief minister J Jayalithaa has ordered release of water from Periyar dam from June 1 to benefit farmers of Theni and Cumbum.

Award for policemen: Chief minister J Jayalithaa on Friday gave away `2.08cr in awards to 99 police personnel from Tamil Nadu who excelled in various sports events.