

TRAINING CADETS

Survival Instincts (SI) in association with KravMaga Global (KMG) training the cadets at the Officers' Training Academy (OTA) at St. Thomas Mount in close-quarter combat. KMG regional director Elroy Vaz says special forces in many army units are adapting their program rapidly. He has been a regular instructor at National Police Academy in Hyderabad, where IPS recruits are trained. Survival Instincts is an authorised provider of American Red Cross health and safety training programmes.

— DC